Privately secluded on 32+ acres overlooking westerly hillsides, this distinguished estate is unique in its capability to protect and endure. Reminiscent of a turn-of-the-century all-brick Georgian Mansion with a true slate roof, the estate's location atop the Bernardsville Mountain is wrapped by breath-taking grounds and captivating views. A handsomely gated entry is augmented by multiple security systems, while its concrete construction brings walls almost 2-ft thick and added protection from fire. Meticulous detail and unparalleled craftsmanship created finely appointed rooms of both grand and intimate proportions accented by antique architectural elements; exquisite wood floors; 10' ceilings defined by hand-milled moldings; and a masterfully crafted 2-story library with softly lighted dome. A sprawling walk-out recreation level includes a spa, sauna, card room, billiard room, media/family room and access to the pool. For those who work from home: a multi-room office suite on this level includes a separate entry and kitchenette. For serious wine collectors: a brick groin-vaulted wine cellar for 16,355+ bottles and an elegant tasting room. A separate 4-bedroom cottage is ideal for staff or guests. A silent underground generator runs the entire property. One of the most important estates in New Jersey is less than an hour's drive to New York. Sq.Ft. estimate is per architect plans for all three levels.
