Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, West Milford Twp., NJ

Enlighten your living pleasure in this wonderfully restored Colonial where southern charm meets elegance. Whether it's the warm wood moldings on the ceiling re-establishing the southern feel or the crackle of the cherry in the wood-burning stove radiating heat in the living room, there is a never-ending sense of warmth throughout the space. Entertaining is effortless. The kitchen/dining geography is in the restaurant triangle for better flow, the picturesque backsplash with matching stainless appliances and open shelf concept is all but alluring. The separate dining would seat any/all guests handily with a second deck for additional seating if needed. The collective southern charm design continues into the guest/master bathrooms and further into the bedrooms without disturbance. And on summer days, it wouldn't hurt to know there's a patio at the back equipped with a swimming pool to help you cool off from a long work week. Why not upgrade to this well-situated grandeur and live life inspired? It also makes for a great Airbnb investment inquire about performance figures, thank you!
